HUNG JURY IN GRAHAM LIBEL CASE

CHISUM, WHO DEFAULTED BOND,
MAKES PLEA BEFORE COURT
TODAY; BACK TO JAIL

After being out since yesterday evening the jury in the Graham case at 2:30 this afternoon filed into court and announced that they were hopelessly tied up, 3 to 3, and could not agree. Judge Chappelle, after asking the jurors if there was any misunderstanding as to the instructions, and being informed that there was none, discharged the jury. This means that the case will go over until the next term of court when it will again be tried.

Metville J. Chisum, who defaulted bond for non-appearance was before Judge Chappelle today with an explanation. After hearing arguments by his attorneys asking that the court's action on the bond be rescinded, Judge Chappelle ordered Chisum released under a new bond in the sum of $1,000. So far Chisum has been unable to secure a bond.

"I will take the matter of the forfeited bond under advisement," the court announced at the conclusion of the argument by Chisum's counsel.
